I am at a loss for a description, just horrible. Starts with a bunch of text you have to read, come on this is not 1990 or is that when this was made? It then follows with showing you a few basic things like selecting your unit and then it leaves you on your own wondering what do I do and how do I do it? I quit after 10 minutes of walking in circles trying to figure it out, only learning on my own how to get an income. I will have to come back to it another time. Not at all what I expected... :-(
